TV Studio in partnership with Pyc Media - paid option

For this 20th edition, a real TV studio will be set up to present an innovation, share news, promote an offer, showcase your expertise or your view of the market...
These are just some of the topics you can discuss in an interview with our journalists, on our TV set at the heart of the show.

2027 INNOVATION AWARDS

ASPEC and the magazine "Salles Propres" are once again organising the 2027 Innovation Awards.
This competition is open exclusively to ContaminExpo exhibitors and participation is free.
It recognises innovations launched on the European market since January 1, 2025 in three categories: Cleanroom components, Operating equipment and Services.
The jury will select entries based on an application file to be submitted before January 15, 2027.

The Awards will be presented at the opening cocktail on Tuesday, March 23, 2027.

Innovation Wall: all award entrants will have a dedicated area at the show to present their innovation.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

CONTAMIN EXPO PARIS

Conditions of participation:

The current pricing is subject to ASPEC's general terms and conditions. The exhibitor undertakes to comply with them, particularly with regard to safety and construction rules. The goods, products or services presented must fall within the list of items permitted to be exhibited.
In addition, the exhibitor shall comply with the dedicated exhibitor charter, which will be sent at a later date.

Cancellation terms:

Signing the order form constitutes a firm commitment, subject to availability of the booth specified at the time of the request.
Any cancellation must be notified by the exhibitor by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt sent to ASPEC.

- If cancellation occurs before 31/12/2026, 50% of the invoice amount corresponding to the signed order form will be due as compensation.
- If cancellation occurs after 31/12/2026, 100% of the invoice amount corresponding to the signed order form will be due as compensation.

The same applies if the organiser has resold the service or if the exhibitor does not use it (for example, if the exhibitor has not occupied its booth the day before opening). In the event of a dispute, the court having jurisdiction over ASPEC's registered office shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

If ASPEC is unable to perform its obligations as a result of an unforeseen event or force majeure*, ASPEC shall not be liable to its customers.

In addition to those customarily recognised by case law, the following are considered unforeseen events or force majeure: strikes or labour disputes external to ASPEC, natural disasters, pandemics, fires, interruption of telecommunications, energy supplies or transport of any kind, or any other circumstance beyond ASPEC's reasonable control.*

Payment terms:

- 50% deposit of the total amount incl. VAT payable upon signing the order form
- Balance due before March 1, 2027

Failure to pay by the due dates does not release the exhibitor from its commitments. In such a case, ASPEC reserves the right to be released from any commitment towards the exhibitor.

Payment method:

By bank transfer (ref.: CONTAMINEXPO27); send a copy of the transfer order to deborah.cohen@aspec.fr
